

THE FOLEY INSTITUTE

The Thomas S. Foley Institute for Public Policy and Public Service

Race and Policing in America

Tuesday September 27 | 4:30 – 6 p.m.
CUB Auditorium

The Black Lives Matter movement has recently called attention to the deep distrust that many minority communities feel towards the police departments that serve them. At the same time police around the country feel besieged as targets of camera phone crusaders and a 24-hour news cycle.

Join a panel of experts discussing race and policing in America.

Lorenzo M. Boyd
University of Maryland Eastern Shore
President, Academy of Criminal Justice
Sciences

Captain CP Taylor
Tacoma Police Department

Phillip Tyler
President, NAACP Spokane

Dale Willits
Assistant Professor, WSU Dept.
of Criminal Justice & Criminology